

Manager & Coach Code of Conduct 2026

Each manager and coach will ensure that his/her coaching conduct is that of an adult, with the best interests of every ball player and Colorado Springs Baseball (CSB) and West El Paso Baseball (WEB) To satisfactorily meet these responsibilities, each manager and coach is expected to:

- Know the rules and abide by them.
- Complete a background check, Mandatory Reporting, and Abuse Prevention Training.
- Instruct team members on the rules and coach his/her team in such a way as to motivate each player to always compete according to the rules.
- Ensure the health and safety of all players, including by adhering to all pitch count rules, and in the absence of rules, act in the best interest of player health and longevity regardless of the situation.
- Act always to protect the principles of fun, safety, and development of all athletes.
- Respect the umpires and refrain from questioning their decisions in a disrespectful or abusive manner.
- Ensure that the players and spectators follow the game and practice facility rules and regulations.
- Ensure that fans of his team always conduct themselves with sportsmanship and maturity while in attendance at game/practice sites; assist the umpires in maintaining control of spectators during the games.
- Respect the manager, coaches, players, and parents of the opposing team both during the play of the game and at its conclusion, win or lose.
- Teach each player, especially through personal example, to be humble and generous in victory and proud and courteous in defeat.
- Maintain control of his/her emotions and avoid actions, language, and/or gestures that may be interpreted as hostile and humiliating. Use of foul or abusive language in the vicinity of players is not permitted.
- Refrain from the use of alcoholic beverages, tobacco products or other illegal substances at games, practices, and all other CSB/WEB team events.
- Instruct team support personnel (e.g., assistant coaches, scorekeepers, team parents) in their responsibilities under established rules.
- Realize, accept, and practice the principle that a team's reputation is built not only on its playing ability, but also on its sportsmanship, courtesy, and manner.

Division:

Team Name:

Print Name:

Signature: